

WHAT'S YOUR UTR RATING?

Know Your Level • Find Play • Track Your Progress

The UTR Rating is the global rating system for all tennis players across age, gender or location on the same 16-point scale. Instead of wins or losses, it's based on the following:

COMPETITION

Strength of opponent

SCORE

Based on games won

HISTORY

Last 30 matches within 12 months

Start Posting Scores for UTR

You can post scores of matches with at least 4 total games and they will count toward your UTR Rating.

UTR Rating Questions

How long does it take for my UTR Rating to become reliable?

Approximately five match results are needed to start seeing accuracy, and matches only need to be up to four games to count.

When does my UTR Rating update?

It's dynamic, changing nightly.

How is the UTR Rating calculated?

The UTR Rating is an objective, results-driven rating based on: 1) Strength of opponent; 2) Games won; 3) History of last 30 matches within 12 months. It does not look at wins or losses.

Will UTR Ratings affect my USTA rating?

No, but USTA scores will affect your UTR Rating,

Does a player have the same UTR Rating for doubles and singles?

No.

Is the UTR Rating really that accurate?

Yes. It is the gold standard in college recruiting, and the official rating of the Tennis Channel and ITA. Many USTA tournaments are seeded on UTR Rating vs. USTA or national rankings.

Why is my UTR Rating different than my NTRP?

It's not an apples to apples comparison. Your UTR Rating updates every time you play. Instead of a fixed annual rating, your UTR Rating moves with you and the global tennis community.

Profile Questions

I have missing scores on my player profile, or have a duplicate profile.

Go to support.universaltennis.com to submit a question, or look for the three dots next to your name and click "request profile merge."

I just self-rated, and my rating looks off! What do I do?

Don't worry! As soon as you post scores, your rating will update.

How does Universal Tennis have some of my scores already?

If you have played in USTA matches or sanctioned events, you may already have a UTR Rating.
